JEFFERSON CITY – Missouri Sen. Joseph Keaveny (D-St.Louis) proudly announces the addition of three citizens from the 4th Senatorial District to the following boards:

Ms. Leata Price-Land, as a member of the Board of Cosmetology and Barber Examiners. The Board of Cosmetology and Barber Examiners protects the public through the licensing, examination, and evaluation of workers involved in hairdressing, cosmetology, and manicuring.

Ms. Emily Martin, as a member of the State Board of Mediation. The Missouri State Board of Mediation resolves issues of majority representation within Missouri's public sector in accordance with state statutes and in the most effective manner possible while maintaining the highest degree of neutrality.

Mr. Jeffrey Carter, as a member of the State Board of Registration for the Healing Arts. The Missouri State Board of Registration for the Healing Arts registers, licenses, and regulates all physicians and surgeons in the state. In addition, the board is also responsible for all physical therapists, speech pathologists, audiologists, physician assistants, clinical perfusionists, physical therapist assistants, anesthesiologist assistants, and athletic trainers.

“With these appointments, we’ve got some great minds providing their knowledge to the state,” said Sen. Keaveny. “I know they will represent the Fourth District well.”
